

"Yom Hashoah"
DVD cover design

"Yom Hashoah"
flier design

BEN DAVID MESSIANIC JEWISH CONGREGATION invites you to commemorate:

YOM HASHOAH

Saturday April 29, 2006

"Let it be an act of remembrance, for that is what the victims wanted: to be remembered, at least to be remembered."
Elie Wiesel

Please join us in remembering the victims of the Holocaust with two outstanding guests:

at 10:30 am

Magda Herzberger, Author and Holocaust Survivor

Magda Herzberger was born and raised in the city of Cluj, Romania. She and her family were deported to the German concentration camps in 1944 when the Nazi's occupied her native city. She is a survivor of three death camps: Auschwitz, Bremen, and Bergen Belsen. Most of her family members were killed by the Nazis. Magda is a poet, lecturer and composer. She is also the author of four previously published books: "The Waltz of the Shadows" (an autobiography in poetry form), "Eyewitness to Holocaust" (an autobiographical essay consisting of prose and poetry), "Will You Still Love Me?" (a collection of love poems dedicated to her husband), and "Songs of Life" (a poetry book). Magda will be doing a book signing of her latest book, "Survival," which recounts her ordeal in the concentration camps. The book will be available for purchase at the event.

at 7:30 pm

Alyosha Ryabinov, Composer, Concert Pianist
Senior pastor of the House of God's Glory in Ormand Beach, FL

During the 1960's and 70's, Alyosha was trained in the Ukraine as a composer and third generation concert pianist. At the age of 20, he immigrated to the United States and obtained a Masters degree in Piano Performance and Composition from DePaul University in Chicago. It was during his first few years in Chicago in the early 1980's that Alyosha came to faith in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and His Messiah, Yeshua. Alyosha will present a message of hope and restoration through God's love.

Both events will be held at Eastside Christian Church in Fullerton - www.eastside.com - which is graciously providing the facility. Please note: No childcare will be provided.

Please see directions to the Church on the back of this flier.